Kayla & Trevin

Kayla and Trevin are both undergraduate students in their second year at Compliance University. Compliance University is a public liberal arts institution with an undergraduate population of approximately 3,000 students. Kayla and Trevin met their first year, and they are two of thirty students in Compliance University's relatively small theatre major. Kayla and Trevin often spend the majority of each week in the said, "Kayla, I mean it – stop! This is gross, and I don't want you anywhere near me right now," Kayla stood up and slapped him across the face as hard as she could.

Kayla alleges that Trevin consented to all their sexual activity, and she does not recall slapping him.
