

Nursing, AAS

The Nursing associate degree program prepares graduates to practice nursing care in a dynamic environment and meet individual health needs.

Graduates must pass the NCLEX-RN licensing exam to practice as a Registered Nurse (RN). Graduates may work in hospitals, physicians' offices, schools, and similar areas.

Nursing, AAS | A45110

- Credits required for a degree: 66
- Practice professional nursing behaviors
- Manage healthcare for individuals
- Develop teaching plan for individuals
- Communication skills

Admission Requirements

- GTCC general admission
- College readiness in English and Math
- Competency in Biology
- Completion of program information session
- CNA certification
- Completion of ATI TEAS examination

- In-state tuition and fees:
$5,640