

Guidelines: Lisa Huus Bursary

About the bursary

Lisa Pauline Huus was a pioneer for people with disabilities seeking access to mainstream education in British Columbia. She was the first student with a significant disability (spinal muscular atrophy) to attend the BC public school system, in Victoria, British Columbia, and graduated from Claremont Senior Secondary School in 1985.

2.

A summary of application questions is provided to help you prepare.

General applicant information

Full name*